Ophthalmology is a branch of science that constantly updates itself in parallel with microsurgery-imaging techniques and developments in technology and the pharmaceutical industry.

We aim to publish original articles of high scientific and clinical value in all fields of ophthalmology in the Archives of Ophthalmological Research journal. We will effort to become a journal that is indexed first in national indexes and then in international indexes.

The target audience of the journal is ophthalmologists, specialist students, and healthcare professionals interested in this field. We are pleased to present the first issue of our magazine, which will be published 4 times a year (January, April, July and October).

We would like to thank our valuable colleagues who were on the advisory board and served as referees to increase the scientific value of the articles, and the Medihealth Academy Publishing house for their support in this process.

Sincerely,

Editor-in-Chief
Prof. Uğur ACAR
